Read this:

If you are applying for the MS in Leadership and Organizational Development degree without a specialized concentration, select the Transformational Leadership option within the application as shown below.

- Transformational Leadership
- Executive and Professional Coaching
- Organizational Consulting
- Negotiation and Mediation
- Strategic HR

If you are seeking one of the specialized concentrations, select the appropriate option within the application as shown in the example below.

- Transformational Leadership
- Executive and Professional Coaching
- Organizational Consulting
- Negotiation and Mediation
- Strategic HR

When completing your application, the only required items are those that have a small red star next to them. For example, we DO require your resume and application essay to submit the application, but we DO NOT require your unofficial transcript to be uploaded at this time – even though you are free to do so. Additionally, you are NOT required to list your recommenders; however, if you choose to, the recommendation request will be sent IMMEDIATELY upon entering their information.
